Important event information

Help & Information

Disabled Living, organisers of the event, will be located in the Kidz to Adultz main registration area and also on Stands C6 and B6, which are located to the left as you enter the main exhibition hall. We can help with finding companies, equipment, information on seminars and details on any aspect of the event. Look for the blue star on the floorplan within the centre pages.

Please note
ICC Wales is a cashless
venue

Evacuation

If an announcement is made to evacuate the venue, please leave by the nearest fire exit and/or as instructed by the fire marshals, venue staff, or a member of the Kidz to Adultz Team. DO NOT re-enter the building unless instructed to do so.

First Aid Trained Staff

If you require medical assistance, report to the Kidz to Adultz main registration area and speak to any member of the Disabled Living team (easily recognisable by their Kidz to Adultz shirts) or a member of the venue security team.

Seating & Catering

A range of hot and cold food, drinks, snacks and sandwiches are available to purchase. Seating and catering areas are located to the rear of the main exhibition hall. Please note ICC Wales is a cashless venue.

Accessible Toilets

Are located along the main concourse outside the main exhibition hall. There are also toilets behind the main registration area and in the changing places facility (see details below). See floorplan centre pages.

Changing Places Facility

The changing facility is located through the main venue entrance doors, to the left and down the corridor on the right. If you enter the venue via the lifts from the car park, the changing place facility is past the registration area to the right and is clearly signposted. See floorplan centre pages.

- A centrally placed WC with space either side
- Adjustable height adult-sized changing bench
- Ceiling mounted hoist to enable ease of movement around the room
- Adequate space to accommodate the disabled person and up to two carers

Fun Zone

Join in the Boccia taster sessions hosted by Newport Live. Boccia is a target sport played indoors with soft leather balls. Once you play it you will be hooked!

The MOVE Programme: improving functional mobility skills through a holistic approach

MOVE (Movement Opportunities Via Education) is a functional mobility programme that improves sitting, standing and walking skills of children with additional physical needs. It is a strengths-based programme, focusing on the child's abilities and working on goals most important to the individual and their family. The programme is designed to be an integral part of a child's day and to be intertwined into learning opportunities provided throughout the day by practitioners. Objectives: To understand the principles and ethos of the MOVE Programme. To understand the 6 Steps of the MOVE Programme. To learn the physical, educational, and social benefits of MOVE as a holistic approach, and how it can be used as a tool to aid recovery from the effects of the Covid-19 pandemic.

- Evidence behind early powered mobility
- Benefits of early powered mobility
- Powered mobility for young children is more than learning wheelchair skills
- Aids and adaptations to improve user ability of an early powered mobility device (Bugzi)
- How to access early powered mobility locally

Objective: to increase attendees knowledge of the benefits of early powered mobility.

Learning Outcome: be able to access an early powered mobility scheme in the local and regional area.

From Special Educational Needs to Additional Learning Needs

The system for supporting children & young people with SEN and disability in Wales is changing. This workshop is for Parents & Carers, providing an overview of the changes to Education introduced by the Additional Learning Needs & Education Tribunal (Wales) Act 2018 including:

- An overview of the current SEN system & new ALN system
- Differences between Statements of SEN (SSEN) & Individual Development Plans (IDP)
- Moving from a SSEN to an IDP
- The New Code of Practice

Our expert will help families navigate the transition into the new process to ensure that their child / young person is supported in having their needs met in education, regardless of the extent of the additional learning needs.

Visual teaching to improve pupil wellbeing

95% of schools have seen an increase in pupil anxiety since September. Sue believes that using visuals in class are key to supporting pupil wellbeing for SEN students so they can get the most out of school life. The seminar will cover:

- Recognising and expressing anxiety, including tools such as emotion fans and visuals.
- Supporting transitions, such as visual timetables and now and next boards to help children understand a sequence of events and lower anxiety levels.
- Coping strategies, like showing a card explaining they need to go to a safe quiet place or get out their calm box.

The Sex Factor (Relationship & Sex Education Training)

Chailey Heritage Foundation is one of the UK's leading centres for children and young people with complex neurodisabilities. There is a general misconception that Relationship & Sex Education (RSE) is not needed for these children and young people and we have found limited adapted RSE for them to learn, stay safe, understand their bodies, relationships and sexuality in full. We have developed a unique way of teaching this difficult subject and have created a user-friendly toolkit consisting of training sessions and resources for teachers and staff to deliver quality RSE to this group of youngsters.

Autism Acceptance, Gaslighting and Thriving as a Disabled Woman

World awarded, Autistic and disabled insights into thriving as an autistic woman:

- Uncover the heart-breaking truth of unintentional Gaslighting
- Discover the hidden challenges to overcome with an invisible disability, including stereotypes and ambulatory wheelchair use, and the detrimental impact of masking and shutdowns of physical capabilities
- Be inspired by a 'power of yet' mindset and redefine autism quirks & gifts while challenging misconceptions

On completion, we hope you will gain an in-depth personal account of thriving as an autistic and disabled person.

Night Time Positioning for Children with Complex Disabilities: Clinical Reasoning, Application and Evidence for Sleep Systems

This seminar covers sleep systems and the clinical reasoning, evidence and potential benefits for children with complex disability. We will also be discussing important factors to consider when choosing a sleep system, highlighting the delicate balance of maintaining or improving sleep quality whilst using a sleep system for these children and their carers, and discuss strategies for successful implementation into the home environment.

Managing bathing posture to support engagement and safety

Bathing can be important to people for a variety of different reasons, whether it be to benefit relaxation, sleep, play, or relationships. However, following a client centred and holistic bathing assessment, that identifies bathing as meaningful, the practicalities of making that a reality, particularly for someone with postural needs, can seem daunting and challenging. This session looks to consider the theory behind bathing posture, linked to functional engagement, safety and long-term health and well-being. Practical demonstration of product will be used to reinforce this learning and reflect on opportunities to meet this clinical and functional challenge. There will also be an opportunity to discuss individual challenges both within the session and on-stand.

Top Tips for Toilet Training

Many families need support to introduce their children to the skills that children need to learn to use the toilet. This is even more likely to be the case when children have physical, learning or developmental disabilities, autism or sensory differences. This session is designed to help families and professionals know when and how to start working on the skills needed for children to successfully toilet train. It will include practical strategies, aim to address some of the difficulties, including when children do not sustain progress. Suggestions for useful resources will also be provided.
